WHEN ARE DEVELOPMENT PERMITS REQUIRED?

Development Permits are required for, but not limited to, new buildings, additions, decks, accessory buildings, signs, replacement of buildings, interior and exterior renovations, repairs, a change of use of land or a building, a change in the intensity of use of land or a building, new signage or replacement of signage, tree cutting or removal, excavations or stockpiles, and repainting or refinishing buildings to a different colour or finish.

WHEN ARE DEVELOPMENT PERMITS NOT REQUIRED?

Development Permits are not required for routine maintenance and repair work, mechanical and electrical work, or repainting a building or sign to the same colour or finish. Minor leasehold improvements and other types of development may be exempt. Contact Town of Banff Planning and Development staff for more information.

WHEN CAN AN APPLICATION FOR A COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT BE MADE?

Before a Development Permit application can be made for a commercial development of 46 m<sup>2</sup> or greater, a commercial use development allotment is required. Small commercial use developments (less than 46 m<sup>2</sup>) may obtain a Development Permit without an allotment. If there is no incremental increase in gross floor area, it is not necessary to apply for a commercial use development allotment. Please see the Town of Banff publication, "A Guide to the Town of Banff Annual Commercial Use Development Allotment" for more information.

HOW TO COMPLETE A DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPLICATION FORM:

Each Development Permit application form contains a list of plans and materials that must accompany the application. In certain cases, a Development Officer may waive some of the listed requirements. In addition, prior to submitting a Development Permit application, the proposal shall satisfy the regulations and objectives of the Town of Banff Land Use Bylaw, Banff Design Guidelines, and Banff Community Plan:

Banff Land Use Bylaw

The Town of Banff Land Use Bylaw identifies a number of different land use districts within the town boundaries. Each land use district has different development regulations for floor area, site coverage, landscaping, height, parking, and setbacks. Permitted and discretionary uses are prescribed for each district. Housing and parking requirements vary according to the type of commercial use.

Banff Design Guidelines

The Banff Design Guidelines are a component of the Banff Land Use Bylaw and provide a framework for evaluating the aesthetic quality of development proposals. The intention of the guidelines is to ensure that the Town's built environment will reflect the spectacular natural environment while recognizing Banff's location in a National Park and a World Heritage site. Banff is characterized by the "Rocky Mountain Style" with common design themes including: sensitivity to nature, the use of rustic natural materials, emphasis on structural expression and strong roof forms, respect for the pedestrian environment, decorative details, and relief and texture. Design features expected in the downtown core are intended to provide strong visual interest and include the use of rundle or river stone along the base of buildings with piers or columns that are no more than 3.6 m apart, a high degree of glazing at street level with ground level windows that are recessed and framed by sidelights or transom windows, the use of wood for window and door trim, soffits, and fascia, equal attention to front and rear façades, signage and lighting that is carefully integrated into the overall design, emphasis on building entrances, and the incorporation of decks, balconies and seating areas overlooking public streets.

Banff Community Plan

The role of the Banff Community Plan is to direct the future of Banff. It is a statement of the goals, objectives, and planning philosophy for the community's future. The Banff Community Plan is consistent with the Banff National Park Management Plan and Town of Banff Incorporation Agreement and identifies the following five purposes:

- a) To maintain the townsite as part of a World Heritage Site;
- b) To serve, as its primary function, as a centre for visitors to the Park and to provide such visitors with accommodation and other goods and services;
- c) To provide the widest possible range of interpretive and orientation services to Park visitors;
- d) To maintain a community character which is consistent with and reflects the surrounding environment; and
- e) To provide a comfortable living community for those persons who need to reside in the townsite in order to achieve its primary function.

HOW DOES THE DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPROVAL PROCESS WORK?

Once the Town of Banff receives a Development Permit Application and it is deemed to be complete, it is reviewed for consistency with the Town of Banff Land Use Bylaw and Banff Design Guidelines, Banff Community Plan, and other relevant documents. The application is also circulated to other municipal departments, Parks Canada, and other agencies for comment. The duration of the review period is at least two weeks and can be longer, depending on the volume of work being handled by Town of Banff staff and external agencies and the complexity of the proposed development. Certain proposals may also require CEAA (Canadian Environmental Assessment Act) screening, which is administered by Parks Canada.

Once all comments have been received, the Development Officer may then consider the application if the proposed development is a permitted use. Permitted uses are allowed provided that they meet the requirements of the Land Use Bylaw, Banff Design Guidelines, and other relevant standards and regulations. If the proposed development is a discretionary use or is considered a large scale or complex project, the application is referred to the Municipal Planning Commission (MPC) for review. The MPC consists of eight voting members including two Councillors, five public representatives, one person nominated by the Federal Minister of Heritage, and either the Director of Environmental Services or the Director of Community Services (appointed by Council as a non-voting member). The MPC has the ability to refuse Development Permit applications for discretionary uses even though they may meet the minimum standards of the Land Use Bylaw.

Once a decision is made and a Notice of Decision is issued, there is a statutory 14-day period during which the applicant or any affected person may appeal the decision of the Development Officer or MPC to the Development Appeal Board (DAB). As a quasi-judicial board, the DAB has the power to uphold, deny, or vary the decision of the Development Officer or MPC. The Notice of Decision may also be accompanied by a number of conditions, which are required to be satisfied prior to the issuance of a Development Permit. At the end of the 14-day appeal period and once all required conditions have been met, except those of a continuing nature, the Development Officer may issue a Development Permit. A development may commence once a Development Permit and a Building Permit, if required, have been issued.

WHEN IS A BUILDING PERMIT REQUIRED?

Like many Alberta municipalities, Banff operates on a two-permit system. A Development Permit deals with land use regulations (e.g. density, site coverage, setbacks, parking, height, design, etc.). A Building Permit deals with the Alberta Building Code (e.g. building structure, materials, insulation, etc.). In many cases, a Building Permit is required in addition to a Development Permit. Furthermore, a Building Permit may be required even though a Development Permit is not required. To determine whether or not your project requires a building permit, please contact the Town of Banff Safety Codes Officer.

WHAT IS THE FEE FOR PROCESSING A DEVELOPMENT PERMIT APPLICATION?

Application processing fees vary according to the size, type, and complexity of the development and are outlined in the Development Processing Fees Schedule. These fees help the Town to partially recover the costs of reviewing, approving, and advertising Development Permits. Building permits have associated fees and vary depending on the estimated value of the proposed development. New buildings, additions, or renovations that result in the creation of new floor area are charged off-site levies in accordance with the Off-site Levies Bylaw. Off-site levies are used to pay for all or part of the capital cost of new or expanded sewer and water facilities. Other fees may apply. Contact Town of Banff Planning and Development staff for more information.

The Banff Land Use Bylaw and other planning documents are available on the Town of Banff website (www.banff.ca) or at Town Hall.
